

Kansas Literacy FESTIVAL

Be The Village

When Children Read, We All Succeed.

The Kansas Literacy Festival is a community event where reading and writing are celebrated. Through a partnership with area schools, book stores, and state-wide organizations, the festival provides literacy enrichment to Kansas youth through programs, events, and activities that encourage early learning, family engagement, and access to books. All activities will be free and open to the public.

Literacy Events in Your Neighborhood

You don't have to wait until September for the festival, the fun starts before then! Kansas Literacy Festival activities are happening from January to September of 2021, with the help of our Digital Partners all across Kansas. Visit storytimevillage.org/kansas-literacy-festival to see what literacy events are happening in your neighborhood.
